

Family History Documents

The following family history documents are the collection of:

(Name)

(Address)

These papers are to go to the following people or institutions:

(List contact information)

This label is included with the family history documents as part of our Legacy Plan to ensure the collection gets preserved properly by the next generations.